INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF TECHNOJET CONSULTANTS LIMITED

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of TECHNOJET CONSULTANTS LIMITED, Mumbai ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2014 and the Statement of Profit and Loss and Cash Flow Statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Accounting Standards referred to in sub-section (3C) of section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956 ("the Act") read with the General circular 15/2013 dated September 13, 2013 of the Ministry of Corporate Affairs in respect of section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013. This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India:

- (a) in the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2014;
- (b) in the case of the Statement of Profit and Loss, of the profit for the year ended on that date; and
- (c) in the case of the Cash Flow Statement, of the cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

1. As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2003 as amended by Companies (Auditor's Report) (Amendment) Order, 2004 (together 'the Order'), issued by the Central Government of India in terms of sub-section (4A) of section 227 of the Act, we give in the Annexure a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the Order.
2. As required by section 227(3) of the Act, we report that:
 - a. we have obtained all the information and explanations, which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit;
 - b. in our opinion proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as appears from our examination of those books;
 - c. the Balance Sheet, Statement of Profit and Loss and Cash Flow Statement dealt with by this Report are in agreement with the books of account;
 - d. in our opinion, the Balance Sheet, Statement of Profit and Loss and Cash Flow Statement comply with the Accounting Standards referred to in sub-section (3C) of

D.R.KOTHARI & CO

Chartered Accountants

section 211 of the Act read with the General Circular 15/2013 dated September 13, 2013 of the Ministry of Corporate Affairs in respect Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013.;

- e. on the basis of written representations received from the directors as on March 31, 2014, and taken on record by the Board of Directors, none of the directors is disqualified as on March 31, 2014, from being appointed as a director in terms of clause (g) of sub-section (1) of section 274 of the Act;

The Annexure referred to in paragraph 1 of the our Report of even date to the Members of “Technojet Consultants Limited” on the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31st March, 2014.

On the basis of such checks as we considered appropriate and according to the information and explanation given to us during the course of our audit, we report that:

1. (a) The company has maintained proper records showing full particulars including quantitative details and situation of its fixed assets.

(b) As explained to us, fixed assets have been physically verified by the management at reasonable intervals; no material discrepancies were noticed on such verification.

(c) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, no fixed asset has been disposed during the year and therefore does not affect the going concern assumption.
2. The Company had no inventories, hence there are not statements to be made on the matters contained in para 4(ii) of CARO.
3. (a) The Company had not granted any loans, secured or unsecured, to companies, firms or other parties listed in the register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956. Consequently, the provisions of clauses iii (b), iii(c) and iii (d) of the order are not applicable to the Company.

(b) The Company had not taken loans from companies, firms or other parties listed in the register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956. Thus sub clauses (f) & (g) are not applicable to the company.
4. In our Opinion there are adequate internal control procedure commensurate with the size of the company and the nature of its business, for the purchase of inventories & fixed assets and payment for expenses & for sale of goods. No major weaknesses in the internal controls have been observed during the course of audit.
5. Based on the audit procedures applied by us and according to the information and explanation provided by the Management, we are of the opinion that there were no contracts or arrangements referred to in Section 301 of the Act that needed to be entered into the Register required to be maintained under that Section.

D.R.KOTHARI & CO

6. The Company has not accepted any deposits from the public within the meaning of the provisions of Section 58A and 58AA of the Companies Act, 1956 or any other relevant provision of the Act and the rules framed there under.
7. As per information & explanations given by the management, the Company has an internal audit system commensurate with its size and the nature of its business.
8. As informed to us the maintenance of cost records has not been prescribed by the Central Government under section 209(1)(d) of the Companies Act, 1956, in respect of the activities carried on by the Company.
9. (a) Based on the audit procedures applied by us and according to the information and explanation provided by Management, the Company is generally regular in depositing undisputed statutory dues including Provident Fund, Investor Education and Protection Fund, Employees' State Insurance, Income-tax, Sales-tax, Wealth Tax, Service Tax, Custom Duty, Excise Duty, cess and any other statutory dues as may be applicable with the appropriate authorities. There are no arrears of undisputed outstanding statutory dues as at the last day of the financial year for a period of more than six months from the date they became payable.

(b) There are no disputed dues and hence question of details does not arise.
10. The Company has no accumulated losses at the end of the financial year. The Company has not incurred cash loss in the current year or immediately preceding financial year.
11. The Company has not obtained borrowings from financial institutions during the year ended 31st March, 2014.
12. The Company has not granted any loans or advances on the basis of security by way of pledge of shares, debentures and other securities. Hence, there is no statement to be made on the matters contained in para 4 (xii) of CARO.
13. In our opinion, and according to the information and explanation given to us, the nature of activities of the Company does not attract any special statute applicable to chit fund or a nidhi /mutual benefit fund/society.
14. In our opinion, the Company has maintained proper records of the transactions and contracts of shares, securities, debentures and other investments and timely entries have been made therein. The shares, securities, debentures and other
